

Houses for Hounds

Application

Completing an application does not guarantee you a free dog house. Applications submitted will be thoroughly vetted to ensure the applicant is in need of assistance. Applicants living within the City of Marshall will be served first and on a case-by-case basis. "Houses for Hounds" is a community project administered by the City of Marshall Police Department's Animal Control and is not liable for any injuries, whether it be people or pets, from the dog houses. By signing the application, the applicant accepts all responsibilities if they are approved for a "Houses for Hounds" dog house.
